Russian and British Ambassadors Depart from Constantinople—Moslems Seize a Muscovite Ship—Decree Prohibiting the Planting of Cotton in the Upper Egyptian Basin is Issued.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 2, 8:47 p.m.—A dispatch received here from Bordeaux by the Central News says:

The French government has issued a statement that the Turkish government, in reply to a note of the Triple Entente powers, confined itself to proposing the recall of Turkish warships to the Dardanelles and expressed a desire to remain at peace with Russia, France and England. But in default of the dismissal of German officers in the Ottoman service, the governments of the Triple Entente could not hope that Turkey would be able to maintain the passive attitude which she offered to adopt.

"The Ottoman government not having thought it its duty to give, by dismissing the German officers, the mark of sincerity to its intentions which was requested, the ambassadors of France, Russia and Great Britain, in conformity with the instructions of their governments, demanded their passports from the Grand Vizier and left Turkey."

"From the impressions received from Northern Africa it appears that the Mussulman government intends in no degree to throw in its lot with the Turks."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Turkey's apology "for recent events in the Black Sea," through the Grand Vizier, announced at London, was a sequel to events which Ambassador Morgenthau reported today in confidential cipher messages to the State Department. It was accepted here as indicating clearly a purpose on the part of the conservative members of the Ottoman Cabinet to avert war with the Triple Entente.

Mr. Morgenthau cabled under date of 5 p.m., Saturday, that shortly after the Russian Ambassador demanded his passport, the Turkish Minister of Agriculture called on a certain neutral diplomat and asked him to go to the Russian envoy to ascertain if an apology by Turkey for the bombardment of Russian ports in the Black Sea would be accepted and would pacify Russia.

The neutral diplomat saw the Russian Ambassador, who said that his instructions to leave Constantinople were absolute, but that when all German sailors, soldiers and officers were dismissed summarily from the Turkish army and navy and when he had been advised of their departure from Turkey, he would return and resume diplomatic relations with the Ottoman Empire.

Later in the day the Turkish Minister of Agriculture called on the same neutral diplomat to learn if an apology would be accepted by the Russian government. The same reply was made to him, and when the Russian and British Ministers left on a special train at 7 p.m., Saturday, arranged through the efforts of the American Ambassador.

Although details of the Turkish apology reported from Berlin had not reached here yet, and the diplomat conversant with the situation did not believe the Triple Entente would be satisfied with the written apology, unless it was accompanied by the dismissal of the German officers.

Paris, Oct. 30.—No fewer than 10,000 British soldiers under the orders of Field Marshal Sir John French on the firing line. Added to these, there were many auxiliary troops on duty at the transport and supply base. This army acts as a complete unit in conjunction with the French under command of Gen. Joffre.

The British base is near a port on the English Channel, and the field of action of the British troops is near the Belgian frontier, and in Belgium itself. Virtually all the British soldiers in the field are men of conscript service, many of them having had from ten to twelve years' training and having participated in Great Britain's "little wars" in various parts of the world. The gaps in their ranks are filled by re-enlisted men who have hastened back to the army at Lord Kitchener's call, and rapidly weeded out and most of the men are developing into fine shots.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 2.—A dispatch from Tiflis, capital of the Cossack Caucasus, says:
"The City Council met in an extraordinary sitting on the occasion of the beginning of the war with Turkey in Caucasus. The Russian, Georgian, Armenian and Moslem members asserted unanimously the solidarity of the various nationalities constituting the Caucasian population in the desire to repulse the enemy of their common fatherland."
"The sitting terminated with cheers from all present. The councilors decided to ask the Governor of Caucasus to tender to the Emperor an expression of the respect and loyalty."

MAY SEND FEDERAL TROOPS INTO RIOT-RIDDEN ARKANSAS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—President Wilson, Attorney-General Gregory and Secretary Garrison of the War Department discussed at a long conference at the White House tonight the advisability of sending federal troops to the strike zones of Hartford Valley, Ark., to assist Frank Youmans, United States district judge, in enforcing the orders of his court.

No decision was reached, the announcement being made that no troops would be ordered out tonight at least. It was stated, however, that the request of the Federal judge was under consideration and the matter would be held in abeyance at least until tomorrow, when the Federal Court of the Western District of Arkansas, over which Judge Youmans presides.

The blood and rioting and an almost uncontrollable situation were pictured to officials here in dispatches from the strike region.

This is the first request of the kind that has come to the Federal government since the outbreak of the strike. Local deputies are said to be terrorized by the situation, and the call for aid from the military has been suggested as the only means of enforcing law and order.

Should the President act on the recommendation of the Federal judge, a proclamation would be issued warning all citizens in the affected district to give up their arms and obey the law. Secretary Garrison declined to say tonight whether or not any orders would be issued tomorrow for Federal troops, awaiting word from the White House of the Federal judge's decision.

Retreat of the Austrians and Germans has moved them from a decisive defeat, but they are still exposed to a serious reverse.

Grand Ball to be Given at Payne's Hall Next Friday to Italian Fund for Suffering People.

Next Friday evening, a grand ball will be given in Payne's Dancing Academy under the auspices of the Belgian war relief fund. Refreshments will be served by the ladies of the Belgian Relief Committee. While the American style of dancing will be in vogue, several Belgian native dances will also be given. Spiesid music will be furnished.

The object is to raise money for the sufferers of the war in Belgium. As the women and children are in great need of life's necessities for the coming winter, the committee makes an earnest appeal to the charitable public to help them relieve the distress of the unfortunate Belgians in Europe. Tickets can be obtained at back across the Alamo at a point near Belmonts and that the operations have extended to the eastern front around Verdun is considered the best news received here from the front for some time past.

"Letters from the front describe the fighting between Nieuport and Ypres as probably the fiercest that has occurred since the commencement of the war. The Germans are said to have forced their way southward by repeated night attacks. The toll of death on both sides is great."
"Fighting has not yet been resumed in Poland, but, according to information from Galicia, events in that quarter are approaching a decisive point."

BERLIN (via The Hague to London) Nov. 2, 7:05 p.m.—The fighting on the northwestern flank is now of a particularly savage character. A considerable proportion of the wounded suffer from bayonet thrusts, which often pass completely through parts of the bodies of the men.

The Germans along wide stretches of the battle front in Northern France have removed the civilian population, thereby stopping the enemy's main sources of information. The hostile artillery, which in the earlier struggles along the Aisne showed a certain superiority in its firing, as a result of this information, is now working to less advantage.

The Germans are making much use of armored trains, particularly in the operation into hostile territory in bringing up supplies of food and provisions through German country. They are also being used to maintain communication with advanced cavalry divisions.

Twenty-One ARE INDICTED.

Men Accused of Violating Anti-trust Law.

Defendants Appear and Give Bonds.

All Connected with New Haven System.

YORK, Nov. 7.—Within a few days after the handing down today of grand jury indictments against twenty present or former directors and the former general counsel of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad of criminal violations of the Sherman anti-trust law, the defendants entered pleas of guilty before United States Judge Foster and were released unconditionally. It was reported tonight that several of those named in the indictments would claim immunity on the ground that they appeared as witnesses in the investigation of the New Haven affairs by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The indictments today were the result of a grand jury inquiry which had been in progress here for several weeks. Charles S. Mellen, president of the New Haven Railroad, was named as a witness in this inquiry. His name appears in a list of officers and former directors mentioned as "conspirators" in the late J. P. Morgan is named in this bill as one of the "conspirators."

Warrants were issued for the arrest of those indicted, at the request of the Federal District Attorney, F. Barker, who is now in New York next to the late Mr. Morgan.

The leading financial power in the country, Lewis Cass Ledyard, one of the country's best-known attorneys, best-known attorney, George Macculloch Miller, 32 years old, was reportedly the son of their bail was taken each for those indicted.

PORK CHOPS STERILIZED.

Read How Your Health is Conserved by this New Order.

BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—New Federal meat inspection regulations for better conservation of the public health went into effect today.

The regulations, which are the result of a long and strenuous campaign, have been strengthened all along the line, and certain meat heretofore wasted may be sold when labeled "second-class sterilized meat," as is done in some European countries. New regulations governing imported meats will become effective on January 1.

The meat inspection law was monopolized by the defendant, consisted of water, steam and electric railroad transportation in all the New England States, New York, New Jersey and every other State of the United States.

The conspiracy is alleged to have been formed on July 2, 1899, the day the Sherman anti-trust act became a law, until the day of the finding and presentation of this indictment.

The men indicted include some of the foremost financiers and railroad men in the United States. William Rockefeller is a brother of John D. Rockefeller, and one of the chief figures in the Standard Oil Company.

George F. Baker, chairman of the First National Bank of New York, one of the wealthiest men in the United States and until recently a director in more than sixty railroad and industrial corporations. Lewis Cass Ledyard was formerly attorney for J. P. Morgan, Sr., and one of the most distinguished attorneys in the United States.

Charles M. Pratt is a director of the Standard Oil Company and a well known for his philanthropies in the field of education.

Theodore N. Vail is the head of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Edward D. Robinson, former general counsel of the road, and closely associated with Charles S. Mellen in the administration of the New Haven affairs, is the only defendant named.

John K. McIlroy is a director of the Standard Oil Company, which is alleged, the central of the Boston and Maine Railroad was kept in the hands of the New Haven.

Henry K. McIlroy is a director of nine other railroad and industrial companies.

Thomas De Witt Cuyler is one of the wealthiest men in Philadelphia and has large banking and railroad interests.

Robert W. Taft of Providence, R. I., is a director in several other New England corporations, and Royal C. Taft, who was mentioned in the indictment, was a member of the Rhode Island Legislature. Mr. Taft died in 1912.

George Macculloch Miller, who is a manufacturer identified with several other corporations in Hartford, Ct.

William Skinner of Holyoke, Mass., has large interests in New England manufacturing enterprises and in other railroad corporations and insurance companies. It is charged that the officers and former directors of the New Haven company conspired to monopolize the transportation business.

The indictment enumerates a large number of corporations (approximately 100) which are alleged to be monopolized.

RESERVE BOARD TO MAKE LEVY.

BANKS MUST PAY SMALL SUM TO DEFRAY EXPENSES OF SYSTEM.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Federal Reserve Board today announced its plan to remedy a slight defect in the new currency act and provide for the payments of its members' salaries.

Through Secretary Willis it is announced a levy of four-tenths of 1 per cent. against the Federal reserve banks for the purpose of defraying expenses for the first half year of its existence will be made.

The law gave the Organization Committee, which preceded the board in preliminary work, $100,000 to spend, but it was not contemplated by Congress that the banks would not be in operation for nearly eleven months after its passage. The expenses of the board and its assistants are to be paid by the banks, and officials hoped they would be in operation long before salary checks were needed here. This $100,000 has been spent, however, and the levy was expected to be much smaller. The actual cost of maintaining the board has not been finally estimated.

Reserve banks are to pay one-third of the assessment at once, a third within thirty days, and the rest within sixty days. The basis used for the levy is the capital stock allotted to the apportioning member bank at its face value, or about $110,000,000.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 7.—Friends here and in California of Ambrose Bierce, the author, who has been missing in Mexico for more than a year, are writing letters to the State Department, asking the department and American Consuls in Mexico to find him.

It is reported that Consul Fletcher at Chihuahua has written to a friend of Bierce here stating that he had not before heard that the author was in Mexico, but that he was spreading the rumor that all Consuls in Mexico had been ordered to search for Bierce.

The missing author's friends are demanding that vigorous action be taken by the department to find Bierce and are bitterly charging Secretary Bryan with incompetence and indifference in this case.

ROBIN AND TURPENTINE.
ENGLAND REMOVES EMBARGO.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Robin and turpentine have been removed from the conditional embargo list by the British government.

The British Ambassador today so notified the State Department. The action is important particularly to the South, where large quantities of naval stores are awaiting shipment to European ports.

ROUGH TIME FOR SINGERS.

Metropolitan Stars Arrive from Europe Flustered.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Twenty principals and seventy-five members of the chorus of the Metropolitan Opera Company arrived from the European tour today by way of Naples on the steamer Canopic tonight.

High-salaried singers, used to traveling in luxury, told of seemingly endless journeys in third-class railroad cars, freight cars, farmers' carts and afoot in their efforts to escape, from the troubled area.

Among the passengers were Enrico Caruso, Emmy Dentini, Miss Geraldine Farrar, Director Gullio Gatti-Casazza, Conductor Arturo Toscanini, Giorgio Polacco, Miss L. Bori and Frida Hempel.

Miss Farrar, who had been touring Europe, was in Munich when war was declared. She went to Amsterdam, hoping to obtain passage there for New York, but after hearing that the North Sea was lined with mines, she decided to go to Naples, where Gatti-Casazza was gathering the party from the fighting countries.

"All I remember," she said, "is what seemed to be constant travel in smelly, dirty third-class trains, sleepless nights and a layover at my back while numerous officials demanded 'passports, passports.'"

"After being shut out about for several days, waiting on sidings for trains to pass, sleeping in crowded cars and often going hungry, we found ourselves back in Munich. We planned the Stars and Stripes prominently on our clothing and boarded another train. This time we went through Switzerland, where traveling was just as uncomfortable as on our fruitless trip to Amsterdam, and finally reached Naples."

Caruso, looking the picture of health, said he had been living "the simple life" on his farm outside of Florence.

George Polacco and his wife, who were in London when the war began, hurried to Carlsbad, where they were detained for fifteen days by the authorities. They made the journey to Milan after they were released, in farmers' carts and freight cars. At Milan they lived for five days in a freight car, sleeping on straw.

FRANCE CHARGES GERMANY

BORDEAUX, Nov. 2.—The French government has issued the following note concerning the attitude of Turkey:

"The French government has noted on several occasions regrettable breaches of neutrality by Turkey, chiefly in the conduct of the military and naval authorities in cooperation with GERMANY. At the same time was heard of the Foreland at Dover this afternoon. Twelve life shells were fired in rapid succession. The British torpedo-boat destroyer could be seen outside Goodwin Sands and it was said that the British ship had attacked a German submarine which was known to be in the channel."

These, with several islands of the Netherlands, constitute the Frisian group. The largest of these islands, which is six miles in length and two miles wide, lies in the fact that it contains a large number of guns and might perhaps be used as a submarine base and also in the defense of East Frisia, the coast of Prussia which forms the northwesternmost point of the German Empire.

now progressed to such a point that the commander of the ship must be able to get the ship out of the harbor. The Japanese government has sent two cruisers lying outside the harbor or apply to the port authorities to have his ship interned until the end of the war.

The conference which took place last night in Honolulu between the port officials and the Japanese Consul is supposed to have had some bearing on this subject, though no report upon it has been received.

From Constantinople by way of Vienna says:

"According to reliable news an Anglo-French fleet yesterday entered the Hellespont. The British battleship Tosham, the Bay, the Admiral, about forty miles west of Smyrna, where the small Turkish gunboat Berak Reis and the Turkish steamer Kanlidadda were anchored. The commander of the Turkish gunboat sank the steamer and blew up his own vessel to prevent their capture by the Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Banks Close Today.
Owing to the State holiday incident to the general election banks will be closed today.

"Food for Fishes."
The biological section of the Southern California Academy of Sciences will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the lecture-room of the Los Angeles Public Library. Prof. C. O. Esterly of Occidental College, will speak on "Food for Fishes," being results of original work. All are invited.

Arrivals for Veterans.
J. F. Stockdale, president of the Panama Hotel Company, has arranged for a direct Western Union service to the Hotel Stowell, Capt. Frederick's headquarters, this evening. He has issued invitations to all friends of the popular candidate to enjoy the election returns.

Meeting of Musicians' Club.
The Musicians' Club, at a meeting held in the Hollenbeck Hotel on Friday evening, decided to confine the membership of the organization as exclusively as possible to musicians of a high standard. It also subscribed to an associate membership in the Los Angeles Symphony Association and voted to become affiliated with the National Federation of Musical Clubs.

Ready Man Bankrupt.
Robert L. Ware, a real estate broker of this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. His debts amount to $14,461.22, of which $17,271.21 is secured and $25,422.73 unsecured. The notes and bills that should be paid by other parties are scheduled at $24,881.18. The assets amount to $7215. of which $275 are claimed to be exempt. The most of the creditors of the alleged bankrupt are located in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Dame News Not Known.
Secretary of the Interior Lane, accompanied by Mrs. Lane and his secretary, H. Meyer, spent three hours here yesterday between trains. They arrived from San Francisco on the Lark just before 10 o'clock and left at 1 o'clock in the afternoon on the California Limited for the Grand Canyon, en route to Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Lane, R. Dockweiler met the Lanes on arrival and took them for an automobile trip about the city.

Death of Aged Woman.
Mrs. Malinda A. Bellis died yesterday at the home of her son, M. D. Bellis, No. 219 Echandia street, at the advanced age of 82 years. The deceased came here from Missouri with her son, who is a linotype in the Times composing room, fourteen years ago. The funeral service will be held at the Vesper chapel, No. 1828 East First street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Surprise Wedding?
When Emil Cloetta, a glazier, living with his mother, Mrs. Marie Cloetta, at No. 2165 1/2 Echandia street, went to San Francisco five weeks ago he did not expect to be married. But when he returns home today it is expected he will bring a bride along. Yesterday he secured a license in the Bay City to marry Miss Elsie Candrian, who lives there. His mother had heard nothing of plans for a wedding.

Better Than Last Year.
The October receipts of the Los Angeles postoffice amounted to $118,417.58, as against $185,969.54 for the corresponding month of last year. This shows an increase of $10,448.02, or 5.75 per cent. The postoffice receipts are always considered an unfailing barometer of business conditions, and the constant increase shown in the receipts of the local office means that the temporary slump suffered last June has passed off and that the situation warrants no reduction in the present force of employees.

ADVERTISING NAMED.
Word of the appointment of C. J. Hirschfeld as assistant advertising manager for the entire Santa Fe system was received here yesterday from Chicago. Mr. Hirschfeld has for some years past been advertising agent for the Coast lines of the Santa Fe, with headquarters here. He will assume the duties of his new position the 15th inst. The advancement is a recognition of real worth, according to Santa Fe officials.

WRONG MAN SHOT?
Howard McOwen, No. 831 South Bonnie Brea street, was shot in the ankle by an unknown man while approaching his home early yesterday morning. The shooting occurred at Seventh street and Union avenue. In company with W. G. Abbott, No. 845 South Alvarado street, McOwen was returning to his home, when two men stepped from behind a hill, heard, cursed and shot. The bullet caught Mr. McOwen's right heel. After the men saw whom they had shot, they muttered something about having been mistaken, and both raced away.

VANDERBILT'S DONATION.
Gives Over a Hundred Thousand Dollars for the Site of a Medical School in New York.
(BY A. P. ROBERT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—W. K. Vanderbilt has donated $112,750 toward the purchase by Columbia University of a half block of property on which Columbia's new medical school will be erected. This announcement was made at a meeting of the university's board of trustees today. The property adjoins other land owned by Columbia.

LIVES IN EAGLE ROCK.
Charles E. Kull, who lives at No. 117 South Avenue 64, had been in Europe for several months, touring Germany, Austria and Switzerland. He was detained in Switzerland by the war, and the first report his family had from him in several weeks was a dispatch announcing that he had arrived in New York. He has a real estate office in Eagle Rock.

TRAFFIC LAWS ARE INVALID.

Alameda County Court Renders Momentous Decision.

Says State Regulation of Speed is Supreme.

Case will be Carried to the Highest Tribunal.

(BY A. P. ROBERT WIRE.)
OAKLAND, Nov. 2.—Alameda county's six Superior Court judges, sitting en banc, decided today that municipal traffic laws are invalid when they conflict with State laws. This means that the rules which conform to the more liberal regulations fixed by the State, need trouble themselves no longer over the vigorous speeding ordinances enforced by California's cities and towns. Another effect of the decision will be to divert speeding fines from municipal coffers into county treasuries.

W. H. L. Hynes, District Attorney of Alameda county, instigated the test case which resulted in the decision. Several months ago he was arrested at Cloverdale for violating that town's speed limit. He was fined $10 under protest.

When Hynes returned to Oakland he sought an opinion from Atty.-Gen. U. S. Webb, who supported his own contention that an automobilist that observes the State's traffic laws is not liable to the operation of a town's. The test case arranged was that of Glenn Shook, a chauffeur, who was arrested for driving his car at a speed of more than twenty miles an hour through Oakland's residential district in disregard of the city ordinance, although the State law permitted twenty-five miles an hour.

The City attorney's office, which prosecuted the case, announced that an appeal would be taken to the State Supreme Court.

LOS ANGELES CITIZEN JUST IN FROM ABROAD CAUSES TWO ARRESTS.

(BY ROBERT WIRE—SPECIAL DISPATCH.)
NEW YORK BUREAU OF TIMES, Nov. 2.—E. C. Kull, a real estate operator of Los Angeles, who arrived from England on the Lusitania, is today out $1100, and Robert Arnold is in a cell with little hope of being able to vote tomorrow. "Grand larceny" is written opposite Arnold's name on the blotter.

The story, according to the police, is that Arnold met Kull on Broadway and volunteered to show the visitor about the town. During the evening they were joined by a friend of Arnold's and it was not long before a spirited discussion was on the coming election; then a little bet. In the exchange of bills Mr. Kull found himself the possessor of some stage money, while his new friends had disappeared. Later, however, Arnold was located and his arrest followed.

LIVES IN EAGLE ROCK.
Charles E. Kull, who lives at No. 117 South Avenue 64, had been in Europe for several months, touring Germany, Austria and Switzerland. He was detained in Switzerland by the war, and the first report his family had from him in several weeks was a dispatch announcing that he had arrived in New York. He has a real estate office in Eagle Rock.

Word of the appointment of C. J. Hirschfeld as assistant advertising manager for the entire Santa Fe system was received here yesterday from Chicago. Mr. Hirschfeld has for some years past been advertising agent for the Coast lines of the Santa Fe, with headquarters here. He will assume the duties of his new position the 15th inst. The advancement is a recognition of real worth, according to Santa Fe officials.

WRONG MAN SHOT?
Howard McOwen, No. 831 South Bonnie Brea street, was shot in the ankle by an unknown man while approaching his home early yesterday morning. The shooting occurred at Seventh street and Union avenue. In company with W. G. Abbott, No. 845 South Alvarado street, McOwen was returning to his home, when two men stepped from behind a hill, heard, cursed and shot. The bullet caught Mr. McOwen's right heel. After the men saw whom they had shot, they muttered something about having been mistaken, and both raced away.

VANDERBILT'S DONATION.
Gives Over a Hundred Thousand Dollars for the Site of a Medical School in New York.
(BY A. P. ROBERT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—W. K. Vanderbilt has donated $112,750 toward the purchase by Columbia University of a half block of property on which Columbia's new medical school will be erected. This announcement was made at a meeting of the university's board of trustees today. The property adjoins other land owned by Columbia.

THE WEATHER.

(Official Report.)

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—(Forecast for Fort A. C. Cuyamaca, Local Forecast.) At 8 o'clock a.m. the thermometer registered 59.50; at 6 p.m., 59.97. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 58 deg. and 79 deg. Relative humidity, 6 a.m., 60 per cent.; 6 p.m., 70 per cent. Wind, 3 a.m., northwest, velocity 1 mile; 6 p.m., south, velocity 4 miles. Highest temperature, 79 deg.; lowest, 56 deg. Rainfall for season, 20.48 of an inch. Accumulated rainfall to sea level, 18.48.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.—The general decrease in pressure over the United States was accompanied by increased temperature and light precipitation on the Pacific coast and in the southwestern section of the country. Forecasting temperatures are limited to the restricted mountain regions in Nevada, Arizona, Utah and Colorado. The greatest amount of precipitation, 2.5 of an inch, fell at Northridge, California, the rainfall in this district being limited to two stations. Clouds with 60 of an inch, and showers with 60 of an inch. The incoming area of high pressure, over the Pacific coast, will give Los Angeles and vicinity continued fair weather for another three-day period, and somewhat higher day temperatures.

LOCAL FORECAST.—For Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair Tuesday; somewhat warmer; light northeast wind. For California south of the Tehachas: Fair Tuesday.

STATE FORECAST.—SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Weather forecast: Fair Tuesday; somewhat warmer; light northeast wind. For California south of the Tehachas: Fair Tuesday; somewhat warmer; light northeast wind.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(Al Home.) Quiet reigned in most markets, buyers and sellers evidently having their thoughts turned to the elections. Europe, however, made redoubled demands for our supplies, and export sales of wheat, corn and oats broke all former world records. Some fear was felt lest we should overproduce and run short for home consumption. Money demand was not large, and interest rates were inclined to sag. The nearness of the establishment of the reserve bank system is having a strengthening effect in all circles. Numerous shipments of cotton, wearing apparel and foodstuffs were sent to European countries, and the trade balance now favors the United States for the first time in over a year.

(Abroad.) The Russian government announced it would float a war bond issue of $350,000,000 at home, none of the bonds being offered outside of Russia.

ONESOME.

After today it will seem funny to walk down the street and not be approached by the wise, wise friend who wants to tell us how not to vote.

CROSS LEGISLATION.

It is not an ethical argument perhaps against prohibition, but it is a fact that prohibition only prohibits the poor, while the rich have a way of getting what they want.

IT IS NO USE.

The people of California have been fooled often enough. They have learned that politically it is not worth while going to the devil for something he will not give them when they get there.

GET BACK!

Say, boys, when you think it over are you not sorry that you allowed Johnson and Eshleman and Stephens and Henev and Bell to lure you away temporarily from the Republican ranks and the regimental flag? Get back, old comrades, into the fighting line! Sing the grand old songs and "sing them with a spirit that will march the world along."

PARKHURST'S THUNDER.

The position taken by Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst of New York on the California election must have been a shock to the prohibitionists, but it is sure to make a big impression on the State today for its sanity. He strikes the nail squarely on the head when he says that wine is antagonistic to whiskey drinking and that to vote against wine is to make a short-sighted contribution to the cause of temperance. Nobody loves the saloon and probably nobody believes in whiskey, but that is no reason why wine should be destroyed. Wine never has been and it never can be permanently prohibited.

THE READ ISSUE.

Consider the principles involved in the election which is to take place today. The Republican party favors a return to the Republican tariff on citrus fruit, on wool and on sugar. The Democratic party favors the free-trade tariff that it enacted last year. The Progressive party favors a recall of judicial decisions. Knowland, Osborne and Roberts will, if elected, vote to protect our citrus orchardists and sheep farmers and beet-sugar, turbotists, Phelan and Randall, if elected, will vote for free wool, free sugar and a low tariff on Sicilian fruit. Henry Stephens and Bell will, if elected, vote for a law to recall judicial decisions.

LESS THAN NOTHING.

A member of Congress who does not belong to either the majority or the minority party obtains no place on committees. He has nothing to trade with other Congressmen. He is a ship without a sail, a shirt without a tail, a race horse whose legs are fendered, ragged and spayed. He has no more chance of obtaining legislation favorable to his constituents than a bulldog has of being mistaken for a lamb.

The election of Stephens and Bell to Congress would mean $7500 per annum, with mileage, clerk hire and pickings to each of these gentlemen. It would mean nothing to anybody else and less than nothing to the people of Los Angeles. To lose appropriations for the improvement of San Pedro Harbor merely to give lucrative offices to these amiable huzzar-muggers would be a mighty poor swap.

OUR COUNTRY.

United States! Do we ever pause to consider how much of grandeur and glory; how much of progress and power; how much of happiness and prosperity is represented by those words.

A citizen from an old world, yoke grown and fashioned into navies and cities. A wilderness of fishing pools and forests changed by the wand of free-labor into a land of factories and farms. A land where no man doffs his hat to another except through the courtesy of equals; where no slave's presence dishonors labor; where education is free; where manhood is respected; where there is no bar of caste or creed between the laborer and the President's chair; the Senator's toga or the Judge's gown. A land whose credit reigns at the head of the world's finances; whose flag is respected on every sea and whose armies would come at a drum-tap out of the hives of industry to march in defense of their country on every shore.

This is our land. Recall it as it was fifty years ago. Look upon it as it is today. Then thank God and the Republican organization for the growth, and go to the polls and vote again for the principles and the candidates of the Grand Old Party.

LET CALIFORNIA JOIN THE PRO-

GRESSION.

California today has the opportunity of taking her place among the Republican States of the nation. And California of all the States should be devoted to Republican doctrines. The commercial developments and the agricultural industries of this State need the protection and safeguarding that is ever given when the Republican party guides the administration of the nation and of the various States thereof.

Today California must make her choice and cast her lot with the party that is to control her affairs during the next four years. Today California must make her choice of representatives who will take their seats among the lawmakers of the nation and have a part in formulating the policies and doctrines that will be enforced during the years to come.

Let this State join in the procession of those which have already declared for the restoration of the Republican party and for the redemption of those doctrines that give protection to American industries and Americans.

Let it be remembered that in every State that has held an election, or a primary election, during the past two years the Republican party has made greater gains than any other party; that it has made gains in each and every State, and that the Progressive party—the only menacing rival of Republicans in California today—has sustained losses in every State.

Let it be remembered that the Progressive party is no longer a national factor; that, as a "Progressive" party State, California will have no influence with the dominant party in the nation, and that, with "Progressive" representatives at the national capital, California can command neither legislative respect nor favors.

It will be a decided humiliation before the eyes of the nation to find that California—the premier State of the Union, the International hostess for 1915, the Golden State of mineral and agricultural wealth—still clings to the discarded and discredited Progressivism.

"Progressivism"—a name that signifies nothing but sound and fury and platitudinous sophistry, false promises and hypocrisy, sickening experiments in legislation and depletion expenditures in patronage graft.

Progressivism has gone the way of Populism and the Know-Nothings. Only in California has it retained a foothold. Defeated once, it will never rise again.

It was a make-shift party rigged to catch the breeze of popular fancy, to hoodwink the sincere people who honestly, but misguidedly, wanted certain reforms, and to make jobs and give places to professional reformers who find that simulating virtues they have not is a profitable occupation. Even the very founders and fathers of Progressivism have abandoned the party. Roosevelt supported the Republican candidate for Governor at the recent primary election in New York; Hiram Johnson is begging Republicans to vote for him and promises that he will be "non-partisan" if elected.

In the presence of such facts we do not believe it possible that the people of California will so far lose their judgment as to endorse the Progressive party or any of its candidates. Consider the registration of those who are to vote today. The Republicans number over 500,000. The Progressives are far less than half of that number.

But the Progressives are making a desperate fight; they have the State organization, a constitution composed of State employees, hired by Johnson and Johnson's commissioners, who must carry this election for him by fair means or foul if they are to retain their jobs and draw their salaries from the taxes paid by the people.

And it is not too much to impute to them the use of foul means. At the August primary the Progressives in one county alone forced more than 2000 names, and four of Johnson's most zealous lieutenants in Alameda county are now in jail for using fraudulent methods to re-elect him.

But even corruption and hypocrisy and deceit, combined with machine politics, must not prevail over an indignant and honest commonwealth. Let the Republicans rise and cast their votes for the CALIFORNIA PARTY, the party that will do the most for the good of the State, that will insure an honorable, business administration, that will awaken industry and give employment to the workman and security to the employer.

Let California join in the procession of States that have fallen in once more under the banner of the Republican party—States that will restore that party to power at the next national election.

Not only a Republican Governor should be elected, but also there should be elected a Republican Legislature, Republican judges, a Republican Congressman and a Republican Senator. Let the victory be complete and emphatic; let it be a permanent and decisive rebuke to the demagogues and charlatans of politics; let the triumph in California be such that it will give encouragement and enthusiasm to the rank and file of Republicans throughout the nation; let California be put definitely and finally among the States upholding the principles of protection for home industry, America and Americans!

WARDEN JOHNSTON, STAND UP.

Warden Johnston, yesterday afternoon, as the chief keeper of the prisoners at San Quentin, you spoke before the Women's City Club, and in your anger and rage so far forgot the acquired manners of a gentleman as to designate certain statements made by the Times relative to the parole by Gov. Johnson's Board of Prison Directors of prisoners convicted of rape as "malicious lies."

Warden Johnston, you then proceeded to defend and try to explain the parole of those rape fiends, but you did not tell of what offenses they were guilty. You did not say that they had all been convicted of mistreating young girls, which is the fact.

Warden Johnston, you did not tell the women who sat before you that Gov. Johnson—who gave you your political job—is a member of the Board of Prison Directors. In attempting to clear your benefactor from the just and truthful charges brought against him by the Times you kept from your auditors the fact that by the Act of June 16, 1913 (Statutes, page 1048) the Governor was given the right to revoke parole without consulting the prison directors. You did not tell the women that Gov. Johnson might now revoke the parole of all the rape fiends who have been released since this unusual power was conferred on him.

Warden Johnston, you told your auditors that the Times had made these charges at the "eleventh hour"—that is, late in the campaign. But you are fully aware of the fact that the charges were published broadcast all over the State before the Times—ever cautious and desirous of being right—saw fit to give them voice; and they were published by the Times in ample season for you or Gov. Johnson to have made an answer had it not suited your purpose to wait until the last moment before making your charges developed from the production of the Times.

Warden Johnston, you are typical of the office-holders whom the Governor has placed in political jobs and who must add to their official duties the political one of stumping the State during a campaign to get him re-elected so that you may hang on. And when the men and women of this State realize the true conditions that exist in California you and all like you will be swept from office.

CALIFORNIA'S ENVIALE POSITION.

Europe, Asia, Africa, America and Oceania, all the continents of the world, now are involved in the great war. Austria's opening shot against Serbia brought all Europe into the struggle. Oceania next took a hand when a detachment of British colonial troops from New Zealand captured German Samoa. Japan's ultimatum to Germany spread the struggle to Asia. The raising of an army in Canada to help the allies placed the continent of America in the conflict. An uprising of Boers in South Africa drew in the Dark Continent, and now there is an extension of Asiatic and African influence caused by the actions of Turkey in attacking Russia on the Black Sea and England in Egypt. Perhaps we shall yet see the great battle at "a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon."

The entry of Turkey into the struggle is but an accumulation of the war's woes. It was deplorable enough to have Christian nations slaying one another; the addition of the Mohammedans piles terror on terror. Where and how it will end God only knows.

It is not at all surprising that students of the Book of Revelations should claim that the words of John to the seven churches in Asia, written more than 1900 years ago, are now being fulfilled. These students have been sure all along that Turkey would take a hand and that words, spoken so long ago by "a great voice as of trumpet," are now about to become effective. They are convinced that "the time is at hand."

Whether this proves so or not the booming of guns at all points of the compass is a sound of dread portent for the entire world. Those guns are heard on the Pacific as well as on the Atlantic. Warships of the hostile nations have steamed not far off the coast of California in search of one another. Merchant vessels coming across from the Orient and Australia to the ports of California have to keep as keen a lookout for the cruisers of an enemy as do steamers on the Atlantic which fly the flag of one or other of the warring nations.

Canada's warlike activities also bring the conflict very close to the United States. Her great Pacific fortress at Esquimaux is just across the Strait of Juan de Fuca from Fort Angeles in the State of Washington. Volunteers and militiamen of the Dominion patrol the frontier in some parts because they say they fear descents from some of those who sympathize with countries with which their mother country is at war.

Another thing which brings the war directly home to the United States is the searching of our ships by the belligerent nations and the detention of some of them. Already some very difficult questions have arisen which have called for the closest diplomacy to secure peaceful settlement. For the State Department at Washington this is a time of eternal vigilance. But while this country is called upon to be unceasingly watchful, it certainly is great cause for thankfulness that we are isolated by 3000 miles of water from the scene of the main conflict and that we are now rapidly coming into a position to be able to take advantage to the full of the demand for our products which is coming from the belligerents. Proud indeed may we be that we have emerged so well from the financial cataclysm which afflicted the world when the war broke out. The United States has readjusted itself to the changed conditions in a marvelously short time. It is not too much to say that this part of the North American continent felt less than any other the dislocation of business and, as Stoddard Jew, vice-president of the First National Bank, told Times readers the other day, this State is in an extremely sound financial condition and may look forward to a great expansion in all industrial lines.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF REPUBLICAN PARTY.

What political organization that ever existed in any country at any time ever rendered such services to the people in war and peace as the Grand Old Republican party?

A nation preserved from destruction. Freedom established and the wrong of human slavery removed. A sound system of finance secured where every dollar is worth one hundred cents. Our manufacturing interests developed from a production of $1,855,000,000 in 1890 to $18,000,000,000 in 1912. Our farm products from $1,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000. Our national wealth increased in the same period from $16,000,000,000 to $116,000,000,000 and from $500 to $1500 per capita.

Do you say that this was not because of Republican rule? Well, it was done under Republican rule and in consequence of Republican policies.

NOW FOR THE PULP DINNER PAID.

It may be that the wage-slaves of Los Angeles are indifferent as to whether their dinner pail is full, or half full, or empty altogether. The Times does not believe they are in that mood. It is confident that they have had enough experience of Democratic policy in the last year and a half in the disturbance of business, in the full or partial closing of factories and shops in mills, in the emptiness of the dinner pail, in the difficulty of earning and saving enough to keep up the payment on the home, in the army of unemployed and in the perfectly touching number of appeals for help owing to the hard times, that they will be glad this year to vote for the straight Republican candidates, for protection and the full dinner pail.

When it is so easy to have good times by voting for them it seems as if there can be no question as to what the majority of American voters will do in the election of Congressmen and Senators today.

Republicans throughout the country are considering the qualifications of Ambassador Myron T. Herrick of Ohio as Presidential timber. He is making good at the capital of France in most trying circumstances. Heretofore he was defeated for reelection in Ohio in 1905 because he would not bow to the dictates of the Anti-Saloon League. It may be possible that the stone the builders rejected may yet become the head of the corner.

Voters who are vexed on account of the multiplicity of constitutional amendments on which they are called upon to express their opinions today should remember that they were fostered upon the people by a Bull Moose Legislature. The era of the ghost-dancers will be eclipsed by the election of a real Republican majority of the Assembly today.

"SUNDAY REST LAW."

"NO. 45," VIRTUALLY AN EIGHT-HOUR LAW IN ANOTHER FORM—SECTARIAN DISCRIMINATION.

One of the most objectionable of the forty-eight propositions on the ballot is the so-called "Sunday Rest Law," No. 45—virtually an eight-hour law in another form.

No. 45, Initiative act prohibiting, except in cases of urgent emergency, the working for wages, or requiring or employing any person to work, more than SIX DAYS OR FORTY-EIGHT HOURS a week, the keeping open or operating certain places of business or selling property on Sunday; declares Sunday provisions of act inapplicable to works of necessity, or to member of religious society which observes another day as day of worship and who on such day keeps his place of business closed and does not work for gain; declares violation of act misdemeanor and prescribes penalties.

This proposed law discriminates in favor of those sects that observe Sunday as a day of rest and religious worship, by selecting and establishing it by law, as the day of rest, and enforcing it upon the people under severe penalties of fines and imprisonment; while those who would observe another day are merely permitted to do so, under prescribed conditions, limitations and restrictions.

This is a violation of the Constitution of the State of California, which declares that "the free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be guaranteed in this State" (Art. I, Sec. 4, Constitution of California). "The enforced observance of a day, held sacred by one of the sects, is a discrimination in favor of that sect and a violation of the freedom of the others." (Vol. 9, page 502, California Reports.)

This proposed law is an unwarranted interference with individual rights and personal liberty. "A man's constitutional liberty means more than his personal freedom. It means, with many other rights, his right freely to labor, and to own the fruit of his toil. . . . It is a curious law for the protection of labor which punishes the laborer for working. Such protection to labor, carried a little further, would send him from the jail to the poorhouse." (Vol. 112, page 483, California Reports.)

The right of one person or class to choose their time of labor and rest establishes the right of every person, and of any class, to a like choice. This proposed law denies equal rights. It grants the right of choice to those who choose to labor, or employ labor, eight hours in one day, forty-eight hours in one week; but denies this right of choice to those who wish to labor or employ labor forty-eight hours and a few minutes in one week. It not only denies the right of choice, but imposes grievous penalties of fines and imprisonment upon those who shall attempt to exercise this natural liberty. Such a law would be a vicious menace to society. It would declare good citizens to be criminals because they sold something on the first day of the week, or because they had labored, or employed labor, for nine, a few minutes over forty-eight hours in one week. Their reasons not being accepted by the zealous prosecutors of the law, they would be in the power of the blackmailer or the jailer most of the time.

This proposed law places all citizens on a level with the wards and convicts of the State, deprived of the liberty to choose their own time for work and rest. The State has no more right to say when free citizens shall work, or rest, than it has to fix, by law, a time for them to eat and sleep. For the State to deny its free citizens the personal liberty to determine the use of their own time is to treat them as slaves.

W. MATTHEW HEALEY.

RIPLING RHYMES.

END OF THE SEASON.

Once more the baseball season's ended, the fans dispersed—it seems a shame; the magnates sit in grandeur splendid, and wonder what has befallen the game. And for their trouble they have reason, the grand old game has been a slump; it's been a dark and dreary season, with all things headed for the dump. I long have been among the stayers, the fans who never missed a game; but I've grown tired of cheery platters who have been showing the game, than for the stupid big and bulky, who haggle for all coin in sight, and falling that, get sour and snaky, and break their contracts left and right. I'm weary of the famous pitcher, who puts a curve in his jeans, and then, to make himself still sicker, writes twaddle for the magazines. I'm tired of all the human factors who constitute our baseball teams, and at off times are the same actors with monologues which give bad dreams. They all seem crazy for the shilling, the pound, the kroner and the yen, and baseball won't be gay and thrilling till we get back old ways again. I care not for these dilettantes, who sing their glory till it's stale, nor care to see a squad of mims performing for a roll of kale.

SONGS TO A SOLDIER.

Oh, when the bugle's blowing,
The stamping horses neigh,
When all stout hearts are glowing,
With passion for the fray.

When loyal youths are thriving
Their lives live away,
When all brave men are going,
I would not have them stay.

I wandered alone in the garden
Where once we said good-by;
I told my heart to harden,
I told my tears to dry.

My heart was hard and dull like lead,
My eyes were dim and red;
I plucked a rose, but the rose was dead,
And I saw the red, red lead.

The banners are waving and
With horns and drums and
The victors are coming,
"Make way!"

The victors in bitter strife,
"Their praises are ringing on all
Where heroic deeds are told."
Ah, what is all this
When their dear lips are cold.

National Magazine.]

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

These letters show, clear, bright exposure of the Times' attitude toward the election. They should be read by all who are interested in the election. They are not only a warning to the Times, but a warning to the people. They are a warning to the people to vote for the Republican party.

The Number of the Car. [Los Angeles Times, Nov. 2.—] (To the Editor of the Times): One of the greatest conveniences adopted by the United States Railroad Company in its treatment of the number of the car is that it is placed conspicuously on the top of the car on the right-hand corner.

It enables a person to read the number of the car they wish to take, which number designates the car takes. For example, a Central-avenue car was numbered "1234" and I saw it at the station at night to catch the writing, which is indistinct.

I suggest the adoption of a system of numbering the cars for the convenience of the traveling public. Respectfully,

MOVEMENTS IN SOCIETY.

RESPONDING to invitations issued by Mrs. Wheaton A. Gray of Kingsley drive, and her daughter, Mrs. Chester Judson, about 200 guests will enjoy an interesting musical Friday afternoon at the home of the former. An artistic arrangement of fall flowers will be used against a background of ferns, forming a pleasing setting for the hostesses and members of the receiving party, who include Mrs. Frank P. Flint, Mrs. William T. Johnston, Mrs. Martin Van Dyke, Mrs. Edward Dean Jordan, Mrs. Edward Taylor, Mrs. Samuel Carr Dunlap, Mrs. Frank P. O'Connor of Pasadena, Mrs. Walter J. Trask, Miss Inez Clark and Miss Lucy Clark.

Pasadena Gossip.

One of the most notable social functions in Pasadena was the Halloween party given at a light or so ago by the Valley Hunt Club. There were pumpkinkins which would have taken prizes at any county fair and great tubs of apple, too. In front of the driveway a great well was dug, and witches, cats and owls and all kinds of spooky things peered from the darkness. At the witch's camp a hag stirred her cauldron and dished out the fortunes of those who crossed her path with silver, or else she gave them love potions. Mrs. H. C. Moore had charge of the decorations, while the plans of the event were in the keeping of Mrs. James S. Macdonnell. Supper was served from the hay stack at 11 o'clock, after which the floor was cleared for dancing. Those accepting invitations were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Asarian, Mr. Nelson W. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baxter, Mr. Mac Blankenhorn, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Clark, Miss Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Carrett, Mr. and Mrs. Durand, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Polson, Mrs. John Gross, Miss Irene Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodhue, Miss Goodhue, Mr. and Mrs. John Goodhue, Mrs. Hamilton, Prof. and Mrs. Holder, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huser, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Knicker, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Loman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Waring Lofgren, Mr. H. M. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Macdonnell, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Macdonnell, Mr. J. Murray Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. J. White, Mrs. Marshall Wotkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Worcester. Chrysanthemums and shades so arranged as to bring out the radiant autumn tones, made a beautiful setting for a reception given by Mrs. J. W. Herlihy at her home, No. 75 North Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena. During the afternoon nearly 100 guests called. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames James Parker, J. Hill, Hartwell Miller, A. W. White, H. H. Savin and Miss Cora Hill. The tea was served by Mesdames Fred Shelly, Louis H. Turner and J. E. Parker while Mrs. Elvion Musick and Miss Grace Canright, Clara Baker and Jennie McCament served at the punch bowl. During the afternoon

Mrs. Margaret Hall and Mrs. Elvion Musick, active members of the Maskers' Club, gave a charming musical programme.

Married Yesterday.
George Vail Steep of Los Angeles and Miss Alma Krause, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Krause of No. 225 North Arsenal avenue, Indianapolis, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the officiating clergyman, Dr. Guy W. Wadsworth. Miss Stella Messenger, Corinne Loyd and the Salt Lake at 4:30 p.m. and the ceremony followed immediately. Mr. and Mrs. Steep will be at home at the Salt Lake apartments after November 15. The young couple were schoolmates in Indianapolis and their marriage is the consummation of a childhood romance.

Merry Affairs.

A Halloween party was given at the home of Miss Rae Bury, No. 2711 Blanchard street. The guests included Mrs. Bury, Miss E. B. Bury, Miss Frank Breeman, Leonard Jarvis, Miss Hazel Thompson, Miss Mae Thornton, Bert Curtis, Howard Duke, Miss Victoria Yeager, Joseph Marshall, Miss Amy Verges, Edward Clifton, Miss Lillian Westphal, Eugene Lamb, Miss Elsie Fuhk, Miss Laura, Miss Anne Regan, Harold Bury, Miss Josephine Chipp, Mr. Bonny, Miss Nina Kellogg, Miss Alice Howell and Alan Phillips.

Hollywood Wedding.

A recent wedding of interest to friends of the young people took place in the East Hollywood Methodist Episcopal Church, when Miss Ruby M. Elwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwell of No. 1411 Wilmsa boulevard, became the bride of Earle Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Baker of No. 1229 Lexington avenue. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, English ivy, amaranth and yellow and white chrysanthemums, which formed an aisle through which the bridal party passed. The groom's sister, Miss Nellie, assisted as maid of honor, and the Misses Nell Miller, Stella Messenger, Corinne Loyd and Edna Dohler were the bridesmaids. Oscar Bendquist was best man, and the ushers chosen included Willis La Mot, E. Potter, Stewart S. Elwell and Dr. Arthur Priester. The wedding music was rendered by Miss Case, Mrs. Dase, and a solo by Mrs. Elwell. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. A reception followed in the church parlor, and the bride and groom departed for a mountain honeymoon outing, at the conclusion of which they will be at home to friends in San Pedro.

Luncheon for Bride.

Mrs. F. W. Krampe of No. 6229 Cimarron street, assisted by her daughter, Miss Hilda, gave a luncheon last week complimentary to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Milton P. Krampe. The house was gay with golden chrysanthemums and there were covers held for Mrs. Milton P. Krampe, Mrs. C. P. Spring, Mrs. F. Dyer, Mrs. A. Fraser, Mrs. R. Dalton,

Wedding Announcement.
Announcement has been received from Washington of the marriage October 1 of Mrs. Sarah S. McMillan and Henry W. Patton. Friends in this city will be interested in the news.

Dinner Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Carroll C. Holmes recently entertained with an elaborate dinner party at one of the downtown hotels. Violets and maidenhair were used to beautify the table. Courageous guests of the party were given as favors to the ladies, and tiny match safes pleased the gentlemen. Hand decorated cards held places for Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Pickler, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Kaller, Mr. and Mrs. G. Guy Whitaker, Dr. and Mrs. Payne, Miss Sine Holden, Ray Sealey and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sealey.

A Debut.
Ellen Beach Yaw made her debut as an actress, playing Ophelia in Shakespeare's "Hamlet," at the Mason last night.

Naturally it was to see and hear Miss Yaw that the house was packed. The remainder of the company, excepting Mr. Ernest Crawford, who has had considerable experience in playing Shakespeare, had been hastily gathered together and naturally were entirely inadequate to the difficulties of Shakespeare and blank verse.

As to Miss Yaw's histrionic ability and personal appearance in the part, the noted singer was satisfyingly lovely to look at, and played "Ophelia" with simple sincerity.

Though one had naturally doubted Miss Yaw's judgment in introducing the grand opera music into the play, it is the greater tribute to her artistry that the singing of Thomas's lines in the book scene and the mad scene seemed not exotic, but quite natural, especially as there is some concession to the recitative in portions of the music, and Miss Yaw's enunciation is wonderfully clear.

In the singing numbers, indeed, Miss Yaw's golden tones held the house spellbound.

Miss Yaw played the part in quite the way that her artistic sense prompted the straightforward appeal, having intended it to have been done. Her growing distress and final madness were played with sustained artistry, and the stage has seen no more appealingly lovely Ophelia.

Who Sent Curling Irons?
[Cincinnati Enquirer:] "At the Indiana yearly meeting of Friends in Richmond, Ind., Herschel Folger, head of Southern College, Helena, Ark., a manual training institution, thanked the Quakers of the North for their generous contributions of clothing as well as money. ## VAUDEVILLE AND FILMS.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

MELODRAMA glorified. That's "Wives of the Rich" at the Orpheum, written by Claude Gillingwater and played by himself and Edith Lyle, assisted by a competent company. Brains, beauty, good acting and good taste characterize the play. The tale it tells is rather old stuff, but so disguised by the excellent quality of the offering that the fact of it being about the eternal triangle and merely a dream after all doesn't figure in the acting of Mr. Gillingwater and Miss Lyle is finished in every detail, so that the play grips you from start to finish. The play is not overdone by anybody, but the breadth, and following the murder scene these actors' work rises to heights of real artistry. Mr. Frederick Forrester as the artist, is excellent. Those playing minor parts deserve great credit, too; how often a bad piece spoils a good one! Whereas, in "Wives of the Rich," George Broit and George Thompson are quite exemplary as limbs of the law.

Harry De Cost does some hair-raising stunts, balancing himself nonchalantly on top of stacks of tables, chairs and boxes, proving incidentally that every in the line of fooling the laws of gravitation hadn't been done already, after all, as we are sometimes led to think.

There are two sets of singing comedians, Joe and Lew Cooper and Herbert Ashley and Al Canfield, the latter of whom parodies the original songs of the former very cleverly, notably "That Crooney Melody." Al Canfield, in his chetish style, sings with his infectious open-mouth smile.

The five Metzetts are shirtwaist boys in first-class acrobatics.

Startlingly good in vocal and acrobatic nonsense continues to be a riot; Nella Walker and Wilbur Mack continue popular in new clothes and clever backfire, and Charlie Ahern's comedy wheelmen, concealing their clever work like a clever woman, continue to make a big hit in their funny antics.

Altogether, the bill's a great one.

Empire.
Loew's Empire has an excellent act for a headliner this week in "The Red Widow," which is a comedy of two chivalrous college boys, anxious to defend a girl in distress, a pretty girl in trouble, and a madman, who imagines himself a detective. It is alive with action from start to finish and has a peculiar ending that would spoil the act for this week's audiences if it were told.

Everyone who has ever seen Nell McKinley, the "raving nut," in his comedy "The Raving Nut," will return McKinley is a comedian of the infectious, spontaneous sort, who rarely plays his act the same way twice, and he receives of perfect balance and juggling stunts, are highly entertaining.

Johnny Murphy and Johnny Foley, proteges of George Primrose and former minstrel men, give a remarkable exhibition in soft-shoe dancing of the Primrose type and in wooden-shoe work.

Manual Romain and Charles Orr are also minstrel men of a few years back, but their work is along the same line, and this week they offer an excellent singing novelty, called "The Cockney and the Con."

William Shriver and Blossom Richards offer a unique skit, in which Miss Richards dispenses the comedy, and it is really good comedy. Both sing well.

There are a number of excellent photoplays to round out the bill.

Morocco.
With brilliant new features the second and last week of the Gaiety Company's latest success, "The Red Widow," started at the Morocco Theater last night.

Bernice Sibek, the fairy-like, too dancer, whose fame has spread throughout the country, proved an important feature of the second week. Miss Sibek is one of the faintest toe dancers on the American stage, and her appearance last night with the Gaiety company was the occasion of a fine ovation.

A second big feature of the new week proved to be the ballroom dances of Beanie de Voie and Ted Wilson. Both these popular people are popular throughout the East because of their remarkable dancing of the latest and finest dance numbers.

"The Red Widow," with its fine New York cast, is proving highly popular at the Morocco, where it has played to practically capacity audiences at every performance since its opening.

Grace Edmond in the name role, Harry Gribbin in the role made famous by Raymond Hitchcock, Billy Clifton, the beautiful Miss Emory, Neal Burns, Ed Clark, Jack Henderson and the others of the company, have won a host of friends for the new production, which is the most brilliant the Gaiety company has ever presented at the Morocco.

Hippodrome.
Have you heard the latest song about Calhoun? But, of course not. It was sung for the first time here yesterday, at the Hippodrome. It is called, "My Girl Doesn't Live in Dixie," and was composed by Joseph B. Carey, the blind musician, who is responsible for many of the odes used by Elks in their rituals. He is one of the members of the Troubadour Trio, which, in addition to this new set of California airs, sings others of Carey's composition, all of which possess those pleasing harmonies which somehow only the blind seem able to give us.

Ruth Gibson and her company present a political drama, which is well done and has a surprising finish.

Gilbert Girard scores with his bird, animal and musical imitations, while Noddy, comedy juggler, opens the bill with a laugh. Lydell and Hughes, among the musical imitations, have a budget of mirth, which is better than ever. Charlie Reilly and his company in "Irish Hearts," and DuBois, a Chinese, though his name doesn't sound like it, in his musical act, finish a good bill.

Tally's Broadway.
Mary Pickford is packing Tally's Broadway Theater, as usual when this charming little actress honors the popular playhouse with her phantom presence.

"Behind the Scenes" is the name of her latest photo-play, and Miss Pickford's part is that of a little actress. Lovers of Mary Pickford's charm and talents cannot afford to miss seeing her in this latest success.

There is especially good music by C. Percival Garratt, the noted English organist, who has recently taken over the music.

Symphony Theater.
"An Ode of the North" is being offered at the Symphony Theater this week. This story was written by Jack London and was staged by Herbert Borthwick. Mr. Borthwick also

LIGHT GLEAMS FOR MAJESTIC.

Beautiful Romance Fills the Stage this Week.

"Kitty MacKay" All Laugh-ter and Love.

Pretty Story Well Written, Superbly Cast.

BY HENRY CHRISTIAN WARNACK.

Daintily improbable and deliciously overdone, but beautifully cast and bonny as the heather is "Kitty MacKay" at the Majestic this week. It is a love story by a woman to whom the good Lord gave a sense of humor along with a flood of sentiment.

God bless the heroine, who believes in fairies and in princes and in the end it all comes true. She believes in love, too, and that also happens in the sweetest, truest way a girl ever dreamed.

Really, the great thing about love is to keep on believing. It may slip through your fingers like the water of a brook you love (not Cedar Brook, for this is a Scotch play, the Scots call a brook a burn anyway) and besides both metaphors are out of the question on election day when you can't vote dry without making a rye face.) It may slip through your fingers like sunlight through the branches of a tree. (Have you a tree to love?) It may slip through your fingers as elusively as the moonlight falls on the hair of the one girl—silver and gold turned into one and every fair strand wound about your heart—and still you are to believe.

This is a secret and you are never, never to tell. If you told everybody would become lovers and be happy and the world would have nothing to be miserable about. Even elections would not be exciting and the defeat would not make anybody unhappy.

The secret is that love never fails the believer. I have tried and I know. True, she is not where I can see. She is off hiding in some sunnier or she has turned into a water lily or a wild rose to fool me, but she is there just the same and one day she will have to return; she will come back with the sunset in her eyes or the moonlight on her hair; she will have to come because she is the forever ever and because I forever believe.

And this all relates to the play? Of course, it does. What else could it be about?

"Kitty MacKay" is in Scotland with some people who are of no kin to her. They get five pounds a month for taking care of her. Her supposed uncle drinks it up and her supposed aunt beats her up into the bargain. The scene is as Scotch as Harry Lauder and that's as it should be. Kitty MacKay is a Scotch girl with her own little red nose and heart to make all the good.

Oh, Kitty MacKay knows her word all right and wouldn't be sordid without it. Don't just say without thinking. Just because you're a little bit of a word, don't you?

Well, Kitty is a little fairy of her own kind. She believes in love until she is bewitched and wonders to her when some one people come and carry her away because she is 19 and must choose her own state.

In London at the home of a suppositious uncle who is a little dreamer, believing in love with birds singing in the trees and violets abloom there, she has violet springs.

That is the way with the woman who knows the dancing music and sixteen inches of themselves and twirls touches their hair.

Kitty falls in love with her uncle's son. This fine old uncle is an English lord and the King. Kitty thinks the lord is wrong, for the canny old uncle has a month for the purpose that his own daughter should be substituted a preacher's daughter, he could keep on getting the pounds a month for the purpose that everybody is happy and the world is in sight.

You cannot imagine, without it, how much good comedy is in the piece. The lines have a mirth in spite of the fact that they have no sense at all.

If there is one adverse criticism the play it is that like the Lord Laidy MacKay and other plays of delight and quality, it has enough filling and business falls about fifteen minutes satisfactory evening's entertainment. It's so good of its kind one way wish for more. The does not go up until 8:30 o'clock, the performance, the 10:45 o'clock.

The play seems to have the idea about a husband who in this case at least one husband fair idea about treating his wife there is a big barrel of good standing at the corner of the where the rain barrel would be. One perfectly understands that has killed all these soldiers his nose.

There is not time nor space vote to the several characters compliments their delightful turns for them. Marjorie is a veritable fairy as Kitty MacKay is incarnate gladness and all the light of Scotland, on being likely, has crystallized in her just enough left to have her hair. In a dozen years not see the part of an elderly gentleman better than the manner in which William sking plays Lord Inglish and have Eleanor Daniels as a Scotch lassie with a cruel tongue and a brow that softens. A smile would be Marie Stuart as Mrs. MacKay, wondrously fitting. There are and everyone superb, but if you wish to see Kitty MacKay you wouldn't go if I wrote all you had to read it all day.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 2.—Jack Sheridan, dean of the American League umpiring staff, was stricken this afternoon with heart failure and died after three weeks' illness. It is said that he was due to retire while he was officiating on an American League diamond last August. He died at the home of Mrs. W. B. Ward, his sister, who is his only surviving relative. When the American League was organized Sheridan became an umpire through his previous experience with the National League. He was 62 years old and began baseball life as an indicator man thirty years ago.

THE Swimming Committee of the Los Angeles Athletic Club have obtained a sanction for a big open meet to be held the latter part of this month. Thanksgiving night in the club tank. This will be the first of several big meets to be held at the club during the purpose of founding out a team that will compete at San Francisco next summer in the national championships.

Les Henry, chairman of the Swimming Committee of the club, and Wallace Robb, co-member of the committee, are in charge of the project and the entry blanks will be out in a few days. A large list of events for one night's entertainment will be carded and an exceptionally fine show is promised.

A challenge cup will be put up for the team winning the most points and a trophy cup to the individual taking the largest number of points. The prize money will be given the first, second and third-place winners in each event.

The events will be as follows: 50, 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes, 800, 1600, mile, two miles, five mile, ten mile, stroke, 50-yard juvenile race for boys 16 years old and under, 50-yard relay, 100-yard relay, fancy diving competitions for boys 16 years old and under, ladies' and men, and a variety of other events lasting about two lengths of the tank.

This will be the first big meet held since the Los Angeles swim season last summer, and there is bound to be some great rivalry between the different clubs. It is expected to be hard fought for the championships then.

The I.A.A.C. will be represented by both teams. The local club has been the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A., Redondo Swimming Club, San Diego Aquatics Club, Santa Monica Swimming Club, etc. There are several good swimmers at the local beaches who will probably enter unattached.

This meet is sanctioned by the A.A.U. and every man must be a registered amateur to be able to compete.

FOOTBALL MEN SHOULD REFORM.

Abolishing Over Officials Unsportsmanlike.

Word Should Stand Unquestioned.

Standards Lowered by Actions.

BY HARRY CARR.

When they are ambitious to descend to the level of muckers, college men should stop "crabbing" and let the officials who rule their games make a poor impression upon the spectators.

Most of the college men. We see the fighters to howl bloody after every decision because they know any better. We take their proper rating and encourage them to play the game as it is.

DIFFERENT. We look to him to play the game of a gentleman at all times. A gentleman is supposed to be courteous and above holding grudges.

FOOLISHNESS. The various games, I have seen do no credit to the game or the coaches of this city.

ARGUMENTS. The football grounds, you see, are a scene of confusion and not for the students.

THE REMEDY. The students of one institution have been cheated in a game. The reason is believed that the referee was not in a proper position. The referee should be a man of high character and should be a member of the institution.

UNDISPUTED. It does not seem to have the same reason for the job, there is no need to be so low and contemptible. It should be a man of high character and should be a member of the institution.

GOLF BUG'S CONFESSION.

BY WILBUR MACK.

Of Walker and Mack at the Orpheum.

WAIT! A SECOND! I'VE ONLY FOUR MORE HOLES TO GO!

thought it to get someone to put me up at his club during my stay. When I arrived here, Mr. Brown, manager of the Orpheum Theater, knowing me to be a golf enthusiast, notified me that he had put me up at the San Gabriel Country Club.

A player must play over a strange links two or three times before he can do himself justice. And, unfortunately, just when I do get acquainted with the course, my engagement in the city is at an end, and I am obliged to pack up and go to the next town.

I was playing a match with a gentleman in Oakland at the Claremont Country Club, and we were a little later getting around than I anticipated. We were playing the fourteenth hole and I saw that it was time for me to be on my way to the theater for the matinee. I had four more holes to play and I couldn't break away from the game, so I told the caddy to order a taxi. I finished the game and jumped into the taxi and we rushed quickly to the theater, and I arrived there just in time to walk on the stage in my golf clothes and do my act.

Golf is not only a wonderful game, but it is beneficial to one's health. If I had to go a distance of seven blocks I would always take a street car, thinking it too far to walk. When you play a game of golf you walk steadily for two and a half hours and it seems nothing, because your mind is occupied, therefore you are getting the needed exercise and the pleasure of the game at the same time.

Fred Henderson of San Francisco made a remark about golf that I thought very good. He said: "Golf is not a good game for a man to play." I asked why. He said: "Because it makes him live too long." He said: "I thought very good. He said: 'Golf is not a good game for a man to play.' I asked why. He said: 'Because it makes him live too long.'"

While I was playing in Winnipeg this past August at the St. Charles Country Club, I had a very bad day. It seemed that I couldn't make a good play and I became so disgusted that I broke a club and gave the others to the caddy and swore that I would never play again. Well, the next week I bought another set of clubs and I haven't missed a day since. I don't think anything could keep me away except illness or a snowstorm.

Yes, I am what they call a golf bug.

Phoenix Road Race.

mike but a short run over the fast part of the course after it is pronounced O.K. for the long grid.

The three Metz cars have been out on the course for weeks and have been worked over by the drivers until they are now ready to start in the race.

Olis Davis has made trial trips and studied the course until he knows it as well as the old route, and his car has been tuned to the highest pitch. At present the machine is being worked over, and is to be practically torn down and built up again before the starting line Monday.

MYSTERY MEN.

Bill Taylor in the Alco and Du Bois of Phoenix in the Cole have kept out of sight during the training period, and not much is known of their work on the course. Both cars have made several trips over the desert route, however, and both drivers should be prepared to put up a great fight in the long race.

The Ellis boys in the Buick have completed their trial runs and are now putting on the final touches to their mechanical camel at their home in Santa Ana.

Anderson and Yeager, the Kissel-Kar drivers, are now on the course trying to locate any weak spots in their car's make-up which might arise. After returning to the city, their Kissel will be gone over again by mechanical experts and given a final grooming for the desert contest.

Beaudet and McConners in the Paige left for their last trip over the course in their racing car Saturday night at midnight. After returning from Phoenix they will go over the course again in a touring car, leaving the racer here under lock and key. The Paige men will arrive at Phoenix just in time to catch the train back to Los Angeles for the start, leaving their touring car there for the Howdy Special joyriders.

ON THE DESERT.

Beaudet believes in training for the race on the desert, sleeping in the open and living under the same conditions that a man has to meet in the race. He has been driving until they are in condition to stand the strain of the 700-mile battle.

Louis Nikrent returned from a fourth trip over the course last week and will spend the rest of the time before the race preparing his car for the final. Nikrent is in perfect driving condition now and believes that with plenty of exercise the last days before a Phoenix race are spent most profitably at home, where the water and food is calculated to put a man's stomach in shape for the hard drilling.

The drivers will hold their meeting at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at the office of the Western Automobile Association Racing Committee, No. 141 West First street. A number of matters of importance will come up. Final instructions will be given and the question of cut-offs determined.

THE BIG DOINGS.

Indicative of the enthusiasm shown by the cities and towns along the route is the action of the Chamber of Commerce of Prescott, Ariz. Through its secretary, T. G. Norris, who is a representative of the W.A.A. at Prescott, an entertainment is planned for every driver, official and Howdyite. The following notice of this was received in a letter to Chairman Shetler of the W.A.A. yesterday, copies of which are sent to the drivers:

"The Entertainment Committee at Prescott, November 19, for the last night control in the Los Angeles-Phoenix race, desire to invite you and your mechanic to be a guest at the Yavapai Club on that evening at a smoker and supper.

"Our committee may not have the time to pleasure of greeting you, as the cars will come into the control at wide intervals; hence we take this opportunity to request that you call at the Yavapai Club as soon as your car is checked in and let us become acquainted.

"This invitation is also extended to the members of the Howdy Special, and we will feel under obligations if you will extend the same to any members of this special with whom you may come in contact."

THE LITERARY DIGEST has made "a big hit" in its presentation of war news. The great illustrated journals of London, and Paris, and Berlin, and Vienna, and Petrograd, have features of exceptional interest to American readers. These features are reproduced in THE LITERARY DIGEST which gives every week a "digest" of the war history as presented in action as well as in international thought and opinion.

Your BOYS and GIRLS should read it

When they are as old as you are they may profit by this European war. They will look back upon it as the greatest event in the history of civilization. It will be worth something to them to be able to say that they remember reading about it when they were children. It will be worth something to preserve a record such as is afforded by THE LITERARY DIGEST.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY AGNES THURNAU.

This is the biggest day that the women of California have faced since the war broke. The rights of citizenship are being fought for. They have had to make themselves felt in the action of the electorate of the State as a whole. Today for the first time they will help choose a Governor. They will also help decide other great issues that vitally affect the welfare of the State; but what is of more significance to women at large, affect the future of the women of the world in politics. Because the world is watching the women of California.

This is not the time or the place to discuss the legislative measures on which women will vote today. It is my opinion, formed "nominally" around the women's gatherings, that they will go to the polls better informed generally on the existing array of amendments than in the past. They have had more time for study, and God knows that's what's needed to save forty-eight amendments to a State Constitution.

I believe in women. I believe in their honesty of purpose. I believe in their keen, clean intelligence. I believe in their sanity.

I believe that the majority of them wish to be fair. I believe that above everything else, they want a clean, efficient administration of State government.

Therefore, I believe that the majority of them will vote right today on the amendments now before them. I believe that the majority of them will vote right today on the amendments now before them.

Enough of whining hypocritical cant from so-called "Progressive" reformers. Enough of ranting from these same "Progressive" politicians who are a menace to the property of the State.

Enough of demagoguery. Enough of the hypocritical cant from so-called "Progressive" reformers. Enough of ranting from these same "Progressive" politicians who are a menace to the property of the State.

Today is a big, crucial day not only for the women of California, but for the women of the United States. Because the men of the United States are watching to see "how the women vote" in California today.

Believe me, they are.

Entre Nous Bazaar. The Boyle Heights Entre Nous Club will hold their annual bazaar at First and Chicago streets on November 5 and 6.

The following ladies are assisting: Mrs. Agnes White, Mrs. Fred Schaffer, Mrs. A. Williams, Mrs. Maggie Cates, Mrs. Frances Berry, Mrs. Mary Powell, Mrs. Mabel Himm, Mrs. Trona Standard, Mrs. Mollie Stevens, Mrs. Belle Bennett, Mrs. Mollie Stevens, Mrs. E. Ebel, Mrs. Mary Atkinson, Mrs. Jennie Riden, Mrs. Marie Philp, Mrs. Nellie Van Kerkhoff, Mrs. Claude Murray, Mrs. Virginia Cross, Mrs. Emma Elliott, Mrs. A. H. Lloyd, Mrs. Georgia Pratt, Mrs. Carrie Brown, Mrs. Clara Caddy, Mrs. Lane Eickmiller, Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, Mrs. Mary Scott, Mrs. Caroline Welsham, Mrs. Cora Gibson, Mrs. Mary Payne.

Interest in the chosen year's work is greatly increasing in this club. The study of the governmental and internal development of the United States makes up the year's programme. At the regular meeting on last Thursday Mrs. G. R. Westlake contributed a most timely and effective article on "Comparison of Political Parties," while Mrs. Walter Chase gave a comprehensive address on the "Noted Bills of the Sixty-third Congress."

Mrs. Clarence Van Graafe, of the Alhambra, Wednesday afternoon Club followed with a delightful and instructive talk on what the Alhambra has accomplished, closing with the parting injunction that we "must have the vision, and make our dreams come true."

On Wednesday afternoon Byron Hanna clearly and forcefully discussed a number of the proposed constitutional amendments.

Teachers Get Together. One of the most notable club organizations in the State is the School Women's Time-to-Time Club. Composed of a group of exceptionally brainy women, with brains in nearly every city in the State, it is an organization of unusual power, dignity and strength. This was fully shown at the annual luncheon at the National Goodwin Cafe, in Santa Monica, Saturday, when the Santa Monica chapter was formally presented to the president of the central chapter, which is in Los Angeles.

There were a hundred women present from all parts of California, and the luncheon was one of clubbdom's pretentious annual affairs. Receiving the teachers from the visiting group were Mrs. M. E. Knorr, Mrs. Charlotte Corder, Miss Etta Montgomery and Miss E. Knorr.

Miss Elizabeth Robinson, president of the Santa Monica chapter and hostess of the day, in a graceful and pleasing address welcomed the teachers from out of town, and formally presented the Santa Monica chapter to the main body.

Following the luncheon and address by Miss Robinson, came a general discussion of the amendments to be voted on today, and a business meeting, at which certain plans of procedure for the coming year were discussed.

The Santa Monica chapter promises to be conspicuous in club activities for the coming year. It numbers among its members many able women who have been prominently identified with social work and political activity elsewhere. Among them are Miss Charlotte Corder, who did notable work in Missouri in the equal suffrage campaign; Miss Etta L. Montgomery, well known while in sociological work at Chicago University for her settlement activities in connection with Hull House, Chicago, and Miss Bowles, who was one of the first teachers to answer the call to go to the Philippine Islands at the close of the Spanish-American War.

The purpose of the School Women's Time-to-Time Club is social contact and a close study of the legislative and local political activities touching the profession, and a concerted effort to support or oppose these activities.

Comicos. The ramblers' section of the Cosmo Club met November 2 at Exposition Park. Mrs. L. V. McClure and Mrs. W. I. Clendenen will lead the party viewing the park and museum.

Los Angeles Teachers. Speaking of the lectures on the causes underlying the present war in Europe, which Prof. Jerome Hall Raymond will give to the Los Angeles Teachers' Club, the University of Chicago Press says: "Few men are better equipped for the discussion of social and political problems than Prof. Raymond. For many years he has been a student of such questions in our own country and in foreign countries. He is not only master of the subject he discusses, but likewise the art of public speaking. The exceptionally fine collection of stereopticon views with which his lectures are illustrated lend added interest to subject matter which without them would be heard with the closest attention." The first lecture to be given by Prof. Raymond under the auspices of the Los Angeles Teachers' Club will be given Friday, November 6, at the clubrooms, Trinity Auditorium. The other lectures will be given each succeeding Friday thereafter. It is an interesting fact that one unit of credit will be given in the political science department of the University of Chicago to all who hear this course through.

Eagle Rock. After a political programme last Thursday the Women's Club of Eagle Rock received nine new members and enjoyed a most pleasant social hour in the tea room.

Pasadena College Women. Mrs. Ralph W. Bailey, at whose home the Pasadena section of the College Women's Club met recently, was unanimously elected section chairman, while Miss Ryl Jones was made vice-chairman; Miss Irene Merriam, secretary, and Viola Nichols, treasurer. The activities of the College Women's Club covers instruction, department of work. The meetings this year will be twice a month and will be arranged so as not to conflict with the Los Angeles section meetings.

His Them Hard. EUROPE'S SUGAR BEET CROP RUIN.

THE MAJORITY OF THE SEASON'S YIELD MAY BE LOST.

The Owner of Extensive Plantations in Cuba Believes the War Will Prove Destructive to the Sugar Industry in Germany, France and Austria.

[New York Journal of Commerce.] Senor M. de Morales, el marques de la real proclamacion, holder of extensive sugar plantations and cattle ranch owner in Cuba, in an interview with a representative of the Journal of Commerce at the Hotel Plaza Saturday, declared that from recent observations in European districts from which he has just returned, the war operations will have a disastrous effect on the important beet crops of Germany, Austria, Russia and France.

The marquis said that because of the fact that the harvesting season of the beet crops in the nations mentioned is just about due to begin, the exhaustion of the labor forces (now at the front engaged in military operations) and the devastation of crop-bearing lands in many districts by invading cavalry or the movement of troops, European beet sugar production will be reduced to at least a third of the normal output, and all the nations through government representatives are making strenuous efforts to secure adequate supplies from Cuban producers.

The fact is well known that Germany produces about 2,500,000, 3,000,000 tons of beets per annum, from which is supplied the large home needs of the German people and approximately one-half of the total then exported to England, which is ordinarily dependent on Germany for a great portion of her sugar consumption. The war, of course, the marquis explained, has cut this business off, so that not only is Germany confronted with the prospect of a shortage in sugar supplies because of the inevitable neglect of the harvesting operations which attend the current months of the year, but England herself, having only recently given indications of her pressing need of additional sugar supplies by making extensive purchases in the United States, is deprived of her chief source of importation.

AUSTRIAN CROPS FACE RUIN. The condition of the Austrian crop of sugar beets, the marquis also learned, is not reassuring to European needs of that important food commodity, practically every man and woman capable of bearing arms having been drafted into the military service, so that the harvesting season, which should now be in full operation, is sadly in need of laborers. The Austrian crop annually amounts to about 1,000,000 tons, all of which is consumed in the domain of Emperor Francis Joseph, who must soon obtain new and large supplies of sugar from some source or be face to face with a famine in that line.

In France, where the annual production of sugar beets is about 300,000 tons, the invasion of the German cavalry and artillery forces as well as the ruin wrought by offensive and defensive troop engagements, the marquis says, has already been so disastrous as practically to eliminate the beet production of France from all consideration this year. The German cavalry horses, he added, have been sustained to a great extent by feeding off the beet fields of France, while even the soldiers on both sides have also been living as far as possible off the fields of that nation, with the result that France is now practically destitute as an agricultural producing country, and must very soon be replenished with food supplies from some quarter or face famine conditions.

CUBA MUST SUPPLY THE WORLD. With reference to the outlook for the Cuban cane sugar crops, the marquis explained that Cuba is the second producer in the order of importance throughout the world, being only slightly behind the German empire in times of peace, and the present prospects are that Cuba will realize one of the heaviest crops of years for some time past there has been a constantly increasing demand for additional laboring forces to handle the increasing cane crops grown in Cuba, but very little success has been realized in efforts to obtain sufficient forces, which fact in itself has acted as a deterring factor to the cultivation of the cane in those districts. If adequate forces of labor could be obtained, the marquis asserted, Cuba's sugar cane crop could be wonderfully increased from year to year.

Bury Cigars With Smoker. [Louisville Courier-Journal:] In keeping with his last wish, two cigars were buried with the body of William Selzer of Evansville, Ind. Selzer was an inveterate smoker, and for years had smoked a favorite brand of cigars.

Several years ago he remarked to one of his brothers that when he died he wished some of these cigars buried with him. Two cigars, wrapped in tin foil, were placed in Selzer's vest pocket when the body was prepared for burial.

takes the leading role and it is one of the finest bits of acting that Hobart Bosworth has done. The scenery in this photo-play is exceptionally beautiful, most of the scenes having been taken in snow regions.

Mozart. Encores returns are to be read from the stage tonight. "The Wolf," well remembered as one of the most popular books by Eugene Walter, is being shown in pictures at the Mozart Theatre this week. It is a powerful picture in beautiful settings, full of stirring and dramatic scenes. The bold exploits of a heartless villain, the relentless trail of the sweetheart and brother, and in the end the price paid, are but hints of the great human interest story this film tells. "The Wolf" is a thrilling and vivid picture.

Cine's Auditorium. Ethel Barrymore, one of the greatest of American actresses, is at Cine's Auditorium this week, this being her first appearance in films. The play is Augustus Thomas's "Nightingale," a play written especially for her, giving latitude for Miss Barrymore to display her many versatility to the fullest extent.

The other feature at the Auditorium is "1412," a pretentious melodrama of detective type, with the mystery element well carried out. Through good acting, good settings and a thrilling, spectacular story it forms a smashing good entertainment.

Cine's Broadway. Miss Beulah F. Chapin, violinist, will be an innovation at Cine's Broadway this week. The young woman was a pupil at the Berlin Conservatory of Music, and is a finished musician.

The first three days of this week will lead with "Rosemary," a Belgic society drama, featuring Adda Gleason, Edith Johnson and Earle Foxe. Another Belgic offering this week is "Doc Yak," a set of clever cartoon drawings by Sidney Smith. And the "Great Imperial Sikus" is the comedy feature, also a finished drama, "Hearts of Gold" and "All for Business."

During the latter half of the week Tom Mix, a characteristic westerner, will hold the screen. Slippery Slim is to be with us again, too.

Trinity Auditorium. "Cabrila," the big moving-picture drama by D'Annunzio, about which all the nation has talked, is at the Trinity Auditorium again for its last week.

Yesterday children from the hospitals, who were able to attend, were guests of the management of the floors of Southern California, and greatly enjoyed the wonderful film drama.

HUMAN BODY'S WORTH. French Scientist says it has a Commercial Value of Only Eight Dollars If of Proper Weight.

[New York Sun:] How much is the human body worth? The calculation is not difficult and the answer is about $8.

The fact is well known that Germany produces about 2,500,000, 3,000,000 tons of beets per annum, from which is supplied the large home needs of the German people and approximately one-half of the total then exported to England, which is ordinarily dependent on Germany for a great portion of her sugar consumption. A PUMPKIN STORY. [Pittsburgh (Star-Times):] A resident of Westfield, Ct., says that last year he took a pumpkin seed before it had dried and cut his name and the year upon it. He planted the seed last spring and when a pumpkin formed the name and date were on it in small letters. As the pumpkin grew the date and letters enlarged in proportion. The pumpkin weighs sixty-three pounds and the letters and date are raised upon it.

Arthur Krouse is a locomotive fireman who has been smoking since he was a boy. About two years ago he began to have spells of illness. His memory was getting bad and he was losing his appetite. He had tried in vain to conquer the habit until he got a certain book and now he is freed from the thrall of tobacco and his health is wonderfully improved. Anyone who desires to read the book can obtain it absolutely free by writing to Edward J. Woods, 111 Madison St., New York City. It tells how the habit of smoking, chewing or snuff taking can be conquered in three days.

THE MARRIAGE HABIT.

The Status of "Married Woman" is one reason why some seek to escape Conjugal Relations. (Mother's Magazine.) Women have the marrying habit; men do not. This is not strange, for generations of girls have been taught that every woman must be married, and that to remain unmarried is a disgrace. Being a "married woman" has been a sort of boast of superiority on the part of wives. Naturally, because their mothers and almost every other person of their own sex put a great deal of emphasis on the desirability of being married, and none at all on the desirability, which sometimes exists, of remaining unmarried, girls looked on marriage as the goal of ambition and bent their whole energies to getting husbands.

CHARTER CHANGES TO BE CONSIDERED

DEPARTMENT HEADS TO OFFER
DESIRED AMENDMENTS.

Efficiency Commission to Sift Out of Them All Such Features as Would Insure Application of Modern Business Principles in Conducting Municipality's Affairs.

City solons are looking ahead to the arrival of the time when the city charter can be revamped and put into a more workable condition. Not until about the middle of April will such an action be possible, because of the limitations requiring that no charter amendments can be submitted within two years of changes in the charter.

But the need for various changes has been so clearly demonstrated on several occasions lately that a well-defined movement is under way to get together the necessary materials from which to construct a new set of amendments. In this work the heads of all city departments are to participate.

At its session of October 22 the City Council adopted a resolution, one clause of which reads: "Resolved, that the Efficiency Commission and the City Attorney be authorized and instructed to prepare at the earliest possible date and submit to the City Council such amendments to the city charter and State laws as are necessary to insure the application of modern business principles in the organization and administration of the city's business."

A letter signed by Jesse Burke, director of the Municipal Efficiency Bureau, and City Attorney Stephens, has been sent to the heads of the city departments, asking their cooperation in the task at hand. The letter says:

"In your experience as an administrative officer of the city, you have doubtless found many points at which you have felt the handicap of charter provisions, or the lack of provisions, which would enable you to accomplish the best results in the transaction of public business."

"Criticism based upon actual experience should be the best guide in formulating any changes in the charter. We, therefore, suggest that this matter be earnestly considered and suggested changes be sent to the Efficiency Commission, whose prompt consideration will be given them by us."

OPEN RECORD.

INVESTIGATION COURTED. "We it resolved that the Board of Public Utilities course the fullest investigation into its powers, duties, activities and possibilities and the relationship between it and other city departments, and that said board will render any and every assistance within its power to the said Municipal League in this matter."

This is the statement of the Board of Public Utilities in resolutions adopted at a special meeting held yesterday afternoon, at which time it rescinded its previous action regarding the discharge of Charles E. Mohler as chief engineer of the railroad department.

The board states in its resolution that its present action is taken after "further conference and consideration with the City Council."

Further conference and consideration with the City Council. The resolution states that Mr. Mohler is retained in his position until the Municipal League makes a report to the City Council on its investigation of the board, "which must be within a reasonable time."

AS TO MARQUESES.

ART BOARD MUST APPROVE. The Public Safety Committee of the City Council recommended yesterday the adoption of an ordinance regulating the erection of marquees over sidewalks. The proposed ordinance will give the Municipal Art Commission power to pass upon all plans and specifications before the structures can be erected. The commission is also empowered to order the removal of advertising on existing marquees if it is deemed objectionable. The ordinance draft on hand does not prohibit advertising on these structures, but it is understood that the Art Commission will not give its approval to plans that provide for advertising.

WANT PLAYGROUND.

SAN PEDRO FOLK PETITION. Property owners of San Pedro and the Board of Education join in a petition to the City Council, filed yesterday, in which they ask that steps be taken to condemn for use as a public playground Block No. 28 of the Euclid tract.

This tract is in the vicinity of the government reservation. It is an irregular tract, having for its boundaries, Twenty-second street, Crescent avenue, Santa Cruz avenue, Palms Verde street, Olive street and Gaffey street.

MANY CHAUFFEURS.

APPLICATIONS BY WHOLESALE. The business of operating automobiles for public hire is growing to large proportions. There are now several hundred permits issued, and yesterday the Police Commission authorized the issuance of eighty-one such permits and eighty-seven applications for chauffeur's licenses. The City Tax and License Collector has ordered 500 additional chauffeur's badges to meet the remarkable demand.

LIQUOR PERMIT.

TRANSFER ARE GRANTED. The Police Commission yesterday granted a transfer of the No. 2 restaurant liquor permit for No. 412 North Alameda street from Toyota Takashima to Fujimoto & Minamoto. The No. 2 restaurant liquor permit held by Junius C. Myers for No. 248 East First street was cancelled, as this business has been discontinued. Robert Vitalich was granted a No. 2 restaurant liquor permit for No. 533 Front street, San Pedro.

PUBLIC DANCE HALLS.

WHAT IS THEIR RECORD? Robert H. Wilson, a newspaper man of this city for the past eight years, was granted a permit by the Police Commission yesterday for a dancing academy in the old Solomon hall at No. 929 South Grand avenue. He proposes to conduct the academy only in the afternoons. The application of Louis Parent for a dance hall permit for No. 263 Mercantile place was laid over for one week, at the suggestion of Mayor Rose.

"I think we should grant no more permits of this character until we have a general report from the Chief of Police as to the number of dance halls in operation and their condition. It is not wise to grant too many of these permits, and I want to see a general report on the manner in which they are being operated," said the Mayor.

SUSPENSIONS.

TWO PATROLMEN DISCIPLINED. The Police Commission yesterday approved the action of Chief of Police Sebastian in suspending two patrolmen. Arlie R. Dunham was suspended for neglect of duty and conduct unbecoming an officer. W. S. Wolfe was suspended for being away from his home after reporting sick and for not notifying the office of his change of address.

SAVE THE HORSES.

COMMISSION MAKES APPEAL. The Humane Animal Commission at its session yesterday made a further appeal to save the American horse from being sold for use in the European war. It adopted by unanimous vote a letter to be sent to President Wilson in which it says:

The Humane Animal Commission of Los Angeles desires to protest against the further shipment of American horses and mules to European governments now engaged in war. Why should American horses and mules, innocent and helpful to the hands of men, be made to suffer for the sins of men?

Is not the sacrifice of human blood sufficient to appease the wrath of the instigators of the European war, which is a crime unparalleled in history? We violate every moral right, every principle of justice in permitting the shipment of horses from this country to countries at war with one another; and it cannot in truth be said that we are not violating the spirit of neutrality by such permission.

Municipal Minor Mention.

The Police Commission yesterday approved the appointment of J. J. Mallon as a special policeman to serve without pay.

The Finance Committee of the City Council yesterday recommended the appropriation of an additional $100 for the paper towel supply for the City Hall. The use of paper towels instead of the old-fashioned roller towel is proving considerably more expensive to the public exchequer, but the demands of sanitation cannot be ignored.

Court costs to the extent of $157.15 in the case of Russell vs. Sebastian were provided for by the Finance Committee of the City Council yesterday. This is the case in which the right of the gas company to make excavations in the streets without a permit was the point at issue, and the city lost.

The Finance Committee will recommend to the Council today that $150 be provided for the lowering of the central portion of Main street, between the paved section from Blount avenue to Manchester street.

Increase in salary for William Matulis and Bert Edwards, property clerk and accountant of the police department, respectively, were asked for by the Police Commission. They arrived too late, but a budget is made. So decided the Finance Committee yesterday. It will recommend the increases at that time.

William L. Clark, who has been an employee of the Municipal Efficiency Commission since it was created, has been transferred to the office of the County Efficiency Commission, taking the position of efficiency investigator. His new duties began yesterday.

At the Courtroom.

REPRIMAND FOR VISIT TO HOME. SON OF DIVORCED PARENTS IS RETURNED TO SCHOOL.

Father Gets Custody of Lad, but Discovers He has Left Military College to be with Mother—Judge Settles Trouble in Contempt Proceedings.

Merrill Johnson, 14 years old, son of Daniel C. and Anna L. Johnson of Pasadena, came to the police in the divorce suit which was recently heard in favor of Mr. Johnson, is a student at a military college. The court in the case placed him in the custody of his father, yet he was haled into court for contempt.

"I ran away from college," testified the lad before Judge Monroe yesterday, "because I wanted to go home and couldn't."

"I order you to go back to school," commanded the court. Attorney Carter, counsel for Mrs. Johnson, started to say something when Judge Monroe interrupted, remarking:

"Just a minute. You are ordered to return to school within a week. The court in the case placed him in the custody of your father, yet you went to your mother's."

"I didn't know that," replied the boy. "One of the officials from the college was asked by the court if he was willing to take young Johnson back, and he replied he was. He said he is a good boy."

"If you don't go back," said the court to Merrill, "you will be guilty of contempt."

FRIENDLESS AND POOR.

WIFE GRANTED FREEDOM. "I was discouraged. I had lost my inheritance and was in a strange country," testified Mrs. Lulu M. Castle in her divorce suit against Albert M. Castle before Judge McCormick yesterday. Her discouragement, it appears, arose from the fact that she could not support her husband. Mrs. Castle had Mr. Castle arrested last October for failing to support the children. The court ordered him to pay his wife $5 a month and he made two payments. She said she was forced to take employment with Mrs. Abbott Kinney as a housekeeper, receiving room and board for herself and the children in lieu of wages. This, however, was only temporary employment. She managed to support her family in other ways, she said. Mr. Castle took notes as his wife testified. He said he did not live happily and although he admitted she had separate property, he did not pay all of the bills because she had this money. The divorce was granted.

DESERVED FOR ANOTHER.

Royal Regent Corsets $1.95

—We bought two specially designed models at a special price, intending to use them at the opening day of the Anniversary Sale.

They arrived too late, but your opportunity is greater in that we've marked them even 1-1/2 than formerly in selling this contest.

The corset is extra heavy, the boning substantial and there's a wide front clasp to give abdominal support.

Style 407 for slender figures is extra long and the boning arranged to avoid pressure on the hips—and bones are silk-finished to prevent pushing through material.

Moore was granted a decree of divorce by Judge Monroe on the ground of desertion. She testified that she married Moore before Judge Taft, who will set the hearing next Tuesday. Meantime, Younger is out on his own recognizance.

Later he appeared before Justice Summerfield on a more serious charge. The complaining witness is Cary Mason. The hearing was set for November 25. No bonds were required.

A juror, who was heavily bonded, skipped out after his arrest ten months ago and was heard from at New York and London. He wrote Judge Taft he feared he would not receive fair treatment at the hands of the white men. He intended, however, to return, pleading that he was not guilty of the charges.

MOORE ASK RELIEF. The Supreme Lodge of Moose filed yesterday a petition in Judge Wellborn's court which will be heard next Monday, asking leave to file an additional bond on appeal to stay execution of the inarguable judgment. The inarguable, having found the regular bond invalid, immediately began to make attachments on the property of the defendants, who include twelve individuals. Among them is a well-known motion picture theater and an apartment-house.

The Supreme Lodge wants County Clerk Leland restrained from issuing any more attachments and the Sheriff restrained from serving them. The inarguable's judgment is for $1547.18, covering damages to the furniture which the regulars took out of the formers' lodge room.

ROOF LEAKS.

HOTEL WANTS DAMAGES. The roof that covers—or did cover—the Hotel Van Nuy, Fourth and Main streets, was the subject of a grave debate before Judge Shenk yesterday.

The E. L. Potter Company, lessee of the hotel, sued Mrs. Susanah R. Younger, of Indian blood, is

MECHANICAL STAMP LICKER.

A novel mechanical stamp licker has been perfected by Oscar E. Gille, a Danish mechanic, who resides at Wilmington. The water container in the device very much resembles a small oil can, and from this liquid is obtained to saturate a small sponge, which can be used to moisten the edge of an envelope or a stamp. The envelope may then be sealed by a small roller, which is on the reverse side. The device may also have small paper knife and pencil sharpener attached.

HOME WEDDING. Wood officiating. The young people will live at Forty-eighth street and South Park avenue.

DECISION AFFIRMED. The committee of the General Land Office at Washington has affirmed the judgment of Register Buren and Receiver Robinson of the local Land Office, in favor of the contestant in the case brought by Lewis E. Cooley against Mamie Hollingsworth, involving a quarter section of land in the Imperial Valley. The dispute arose over conflicting boundary lines that were first laid out by the survey of
